

ECHO CHANGE NEWS LETTER

ECHO TO ERASMUS

We are thrilled to celebrate the achievements of Sandra Adjeiwaa, our Global Change Ambassador and former lead of Echo Change Ghana Chapter. Sandra has been accepted into the prestigious Erasmus Mundus Scholarship Program!

Her journey with Echo Change began in 2023 when she launched the Ghana Chapter and spearheaded numerous community activities aligned with the 17 UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Sandra's dedication and commitment inspire us all, and we look forward to seeing the incredible impact she will make through the Erasmus Mundus Scholarship Program.

GROWING GLOBAL CHANGE AMBASSADORS

Our Global Change Ambassadors community continues to expand, now boasting over 600 ambassadors across 80+ countries!

Each ambassador is making a tangible difference in their communities, embodying the spirit of change.

★ NAGLA ABBAS TANZANIA

Nagla's exceptional work in advancing the UN SDGs has been recognized in her country. She was recently featured in the local newspaper, Zanzibar Leo, highlighting her unwavering dedication to fostering sustainable development and her role as a Global Change Ambassador with Echo Change.

★ LIAQAT ALI PAKISTAN

Liaqat is empowering youth in Ghotki, Sindh, by educating them about Gender-based violence for the "16 Days of Activism" campaign to young boys and girls in the local schools in this community.

ECHO CHANGE PAKISTAN CHAPTER

The ECHO CHANGE PAKISTAN TEAM has reached new heights with the successful launch of their country chapter. Recently, the team collaborated with the Beydaar Society to conduct a transformative 3-DAY RESIDENTIAL FELLOWSHIP called "PEACE LINK."

This initiative aimed to bridge the gap between young religious leaders and civil society activists, fostering dialogue and collaboration to address the 17 UN SDGs.

The efforts of the ECHO CHANGE PAKISTAN CHAPTER demonstrate the power of collective action in creating sustainable and inclusive communities.
